

NITROGEN

N

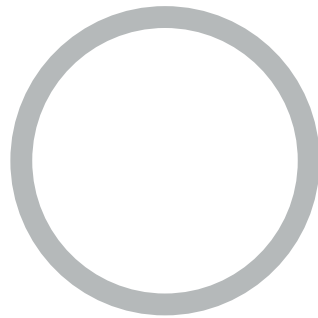

7

AIR

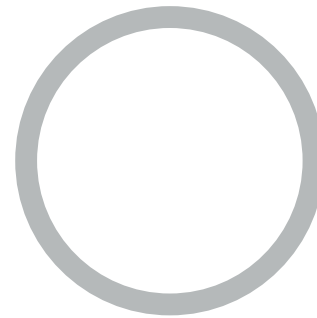

Nitrogen is the most abundant gas in the atmosphere, making up 78% of the air we breathe.

AURORA

Nitrogen is a key component of the aurora borealis, which is caused by the interaction of solar wind particles with the Earth's magnetic field.

FERTILISER

Nitrogen is a key component of fertilisers, which are used to provide plants with the nutrients they need to grow.